That affiant is the plaintiff named in the above-entitled action; that said action has been commenced by the filing of a verified Complaint and the issuance of Summons thereon; that said action is brought to obtain a judgment of divorce by plaintiff from defendant, and that a good cause of action exists therefore in favor of plaintiff and against defendant, as is specifically alleged in the verified Complaint filed herein, reference to which is hereby made.

That defendant is a necessary and proper party in this suit; that Summons cannot be served on defendant in person within the state of Nevada; that defendant is not now in and cannot be found in the state of Nevada; and that defendant's present residence and address are unknown; that at a previous time, namely, on the _____ day of _____, 20_____, defendant resided at: _____; that

WHEREFORE, affiant prays for an order of Court directing that service of process be made herein on defendant by the publication of Summons in some newspaper designated as most likely to give notice to defendant of the pendency of this suit, all in manner and form required by law; and for all proper relief in the premises.
