J. C. BURLINGAME DIES AT CARSON AT AGE 86

Reno Evening Gazette, July 5, 1932

Jason C. Burlingame, who came to Nevada in 1867, died this morning at his home in Carson. He was eighty-eight years old and was widely known in Eureka, the Comstock and in Carson.

He was born in Maine, and his parents died when he was twelve years old. During the Civil War he served with the Union army. In 1867 he came to Nevada, first going to Eureka. Later he moved to Virginia City. He returned to Eureka where he was married, then went to Carson where he was connected with the United State mint until is closed down and following that, was in charge of the commissary at the Nevada State prison for several years. In recent years he had been retired.

Mr. Burlingame was active in the affairs of the Masonic order and was a past grand high priest of the Royal Arch Masons of Nevada. Recently he was presented with a fifty year button indicating that he had been a Mason for a half century. He was a member of the Eureka Lodge No. 16, F. & A. M., St. John's Chapter No 5 R. A. M. and the G.A.R. Corps of Carson.

Surviving are his widow Mrs. Emma Burlingame of Carson: a daughter, Mrs. Florence Tucker of Reno, and a sister, Mrs. Rebecca Noble of Newton Center, Mass.

The funeral will be held at the Carson Masonic temple tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock under the direction of Carson lodge of Masons. Rev. M. J. Hershey of the Episcopal Church will assist in the services. The body will be accompanied to Oakland tomorrow evening for cremation. The Kitzmeyer-Elges Company is in charge.
