Is Buried With Military Honors

The Morning Appeal, November 30, 1915

The funeral of the late Captain Robert A. Haire took place from his home this afternoon at 2 o'clock and was conducted by the Grand Army and Spanish War Veterans, Zack Wilcox, Judge H. F. Bartine, Charles Brulin Sr., and George Meyers, Civil War Veterans and A. W. Clark and Alfred Karge, Spanish war veterans, acting as pall bearers.

Interment followed in the G. A. R. cemetery and the burial service of the Grand Army was read at the grave, after which taps were sounded, thus closing and ending the eventful and honored military career of Captain Robert A. Haire.
