CIVIL WAR VETERAN DIES IN GARDNERVILLE

Carson City Daily Appeal, Saturday, January 19, 1935

Funeral services for the late Thomas J. Fowler, last veteran of the Civil War to reside in Douglas county, will be held in the Kitzmeyer-Elges parlors in Carson at two o'clock Sunday afternoon, and will be conducted by the Rev. Harry Pressfield, pastor of the local Federated Church.

Interment will be in the G. A. R. Cemetery at Lone Mountain.

A firing squad from the American Legion Post of Gardnerville will participate in the ceremonies at the grave and "taps" will be sounded by Robert Golightly.

The pallbearers will be Oley Haugner, Charles Brown, Merritt Olds, Morris, Harris, Charles, Johnson and William Geddes, all of Gardnerville.

The deceased was born in Missouri. He served in the union army and more than fifty years ago came west and settled at Genoa. He was a carpenter and woodworker. He has resided in Gardnerville the past twenty years.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Ruth Mason, school teacher at Verdi, and Mrs. Hazel Staricha of Minden.
