Death of Michael O'Hare

Morning Appeal, December 21, 1886

On Sunday Michael O'Hare, who has been confined to his bed for some time, died of pneumonia. Mr. O'Hare has been for many years engaged in the R.R. shops, and was a member of Custer Post, No. 5 G.A.R. He served through the war and was engaged in over twenty battles. He leaves a wife and a family of little ones, who are distracted over his loss, as a kinder husband and father was seldom seen. The deceased numbered among his friends in this city all who knew him. The funeral will take place today under the auspices of the Custer Post, G.A.R. of this city, from the Catholic Church.

Burial of Michael O'Hare

Morning Appeal, December 22, 1886

The late Michael O'Hare was buried from the Catholic Church yesterday, by fathey (sic) Meagher. The funeral was conducted under the auspices of Custer Post. The following acted as pall bearers:

Ed Williams, John S. Cilley, Phil Doyle, T. J. Connolly, J. McCrimmon, E. Cross.

The funeral procession was very long, and all the fire companies were in line, along with the members of Custer Post, No. 5, of the G.A.R.
