Charter Review Committee Seeks Input

The Charter Review Committee is seeking public input for possible amendments to the Carson City Charter. The governing ordinance requires that proposed amendments to the Charter be heard and debated by the Committee, who then advises the Board of Supervisors with regard to recommendations of the Committee that concern necessary amendments to the Charter.

“The Charter Review Committee is composed of appointed community members committed to facilitating a public review of the city's guiding document” said Rob Joiner, Chairman of the Charter Review Committee. “The process provides an opportunity for anyone to offer suggestions for amendment to the charter for consideration by committee, the Carson City Board of Supervisors and, subsequently, the Nevada Legislature in 2015.”

The City Charter is available to view on the City's website at www.carson.org/crc and click on the Carson City Charter link. Comments and suggestions can be submitted in writing to the Charter Review Committee, c/o City Manager's Office, 201 N. Carson Street, Ste 2, Carson City, NV 89701, by email to cceo@carson.org or online at www.carson.org/crc. For more information about the Charter Review Committee including meeting dates and times, please go to the City's website at www.carson.org/crc.
