Brulin, Charles A. - Obituary

CHARLES A. BRULIN IS LAID TO REST AT FUNERAL HELD TODAY

Was Veteran of Civil War and old Time Resident of Carson Carson City Daily Appeal, Tuesday, December 27, 1932

Funeral services were held this afternoon at two o'clock for the late Charles A. Brulin, who died at his home here a few minutes after ten o'clock Saturday night. Mr. Brulin was one of the few surviving veterans in Nevada of the Civil War. He was born in Sweden on April 19, 1844, and came to the United States with his parents while he was still a small child. The family settled in Illinois, and was living there when war broke out.

Moves to Sacramento

He was married in 1881 and moved to Sacramento, where he lived for five years before coming to Carson, where he has since made his home. Until his retirement in 1908, Mr. Brulin worked for the Virginia & Truckee railroad as a master car builder.

He is survived by three children, Mrs. Emma Benton and Charles Brulin of Carson, and Mrs. Josephine Fulstone of Jack's Valley. A granddaughter, Mrs. R. Lee Chamberlain of Berkeley also survives. He was a member of the G. A. R. post in Carson, and of the local chapter of the Knights of Pythias. Mrs. Brulin passed away exactly three years ago.

Many Attended Funeral

The services, which were held at the Brulin home, were conducted by Rev. M. J. Hershey. The attendance at the services was one of the largest seen in Carson for many months. Mr. Brulin having been greatly esteemed by a wide circle of friends.

Miss Mable Stewart sang two sacred selections, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Joe Stern.

Services at the side of the grave in the G. A. R. cemetery were under the direction of the Knights of Pythias, with Rev. Hershey leading the ceremonies there as well as at the home. Salute and taps in honor of Mr. Brulin's service during the Civil War were sounded by the American Legion corps.

Pall bearers, all intimate friends of the deceased for many years, were Frank Murphy, Charles Rulison, Joe Castle, Lee Bright, John Hart and Arthur Kelly.
