Doane, William H. - Obituary

Wm. Hy Doane Better

Carson Daily Appeal, January 16, 1915

Word from the bedside of William Hy Doane, late this afternoon, states that the old veteran's condition is much improved and there is every hope now that he will pull through. His condition yesterday and for a while last night was so serious that his brother, who was preparing to leave on last night's train for California, was compelled to remain over.

William Hy Doane is Laid to Rest

Carson City Appeal, February 15, 1915

Accompanied by Will Doane, the remains of the late William Hy Doane arrived via the Virginia and Truckee from San Francisco this morning. They were met at the depot by a delegation of the local Grand Army corps, of which Mr. Doane had been a member since its early organization, a number of Spanish War volunteers and bearers from the Reno lodge of Elks and taken to Kitzmeyer's undertaking parlors.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the body was escorted to the Episcopal church, where brief services were solemnized by Rev. Lloyd B. Thomas. Then escorted by the Grand Army men, Spanish War veterans and members of the Reno Elks, of which quite a delegation was present, all that was mortal of William Hy Doane was taken to Lone Mountain cemetery and buried in the Grand Army plot alongside the remains of wife, daughter and grandchild. At the grave the impressive ritual of the Elks was read. A large number of old-time friends of the deceased attended both church service and funeral.

William Hy Doane was a native of Pennsylvania and was in his eightieth year at the time of his death. He was a veteran of the Civil war, serving from 1861 till its close in 1865. In the later year he served as one of the paymasters in the navy.

Mr. Doane came to Nevada forty-six years ago, and has been an almost continuous resident of this city since that timeserving three terms as clerk of Ormsby county. He has many friends all over the state and to them his death will come as a heavy blow.
