Doane, Jonathan Obituary

JONATHAN DOANE DIES AT NAPA, CAL.

Carson City Daily Appeal, September 14, 1918

Jonathan Doane, more familiarly known to his many friends as "Jack," for many years a prominent office holder in Carson, died late yesterday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. I. Skinner, at Napa, Cal., following a stroke of paralysis.

Mr. Doane, who was 74 years old, was born in Norristown, Pa. coming in this city in 1870. He was married in 1879 to Emma Verrill and with his wife made his home in this city for over thirty years. He was first connected with the mint and for four years was deputy secretary of state. Subsequently, he served as deputy state controllerfor eight yearsunder Sam Davis and Jake Eggers. He was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Sam Davis.

Upon the retirement of Mr. Eggers from office, deceased, with his wife made his home at Santa Rosa, Cal., until the death of Mrs. Doane last winter. Following his wife's death he had been spending part of the year with his daughter, Mrs. George Verrill, in Yellowstone Park.

Mr. Doane's death came as a surprise and a severe shock to all who knew him as it was barely a week ago that he was visiting relatives in Carson apparently in the best of healty.

He is survived by a daughter-in-law, Mrs. A. V. Doane of Gardnerville; two daughters, Mrs. C. I. Skinner of Napa, Cal., and Mrs. George Verril of Yellowstone Park, and four grandchildren; C. L. Skinner Jr., Jack Doane Skinner, John Doane and Ruth Verrill.

Active in church work and in public affairs he was a man of strong moral principles and high integrity, whose loss will be deeply mourned wherever he was known.
