Crisler, William – Newspaper Articles

A Sad Case

Morning Appeal, January 3, 1901

Yesterday Wm. Cristler, one of our most respected citizens was adjudged insane and last evening he was taken to Reno where expert treatment and care can be given him.

For some time past, Mr. Cristler has been acting strangely, and he himself complained that his head was not right. A few days ago his condition became serious and for the good of his family the action of yesterday was taken.

This is one of the saddest occurrences (sic) that the APPEAL chronicled in many years, as he has won the respect of all the people in this community, and his wife and family have the sympathy of their many friends and hope that Mr. Cristler's mental condition will improve to such an extent that he will return to his home a well man.

Funeral of William Crisler

Morning Appeal, May 17, 1901

The funeral of the late Wm. Crisler took place yesterday afternoon from Odd Fellows Hall at 2 p.m. The service at the Hall were held under the auspices of the A.O.U.W. Lodge. A choir consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Mackey, Miss Ada Meyers and Prof. Warfel sang several beautiful burial hymns.

The cortege that followed the remains to the grave was one of the largest seen in this city in many months. The members of the G.A.R., the A.O.U.W., the Knights of Pythias, the Warren Engine Company and the Senior Class of the High School being in line.

At the cemetery the services were conducted by the Knights of Pythias and G.A.R.

The floral pieces from the lodges and friends were very elaborate and beautiful, the bier being buried in flowers. One of the impressive features of the burial was the fact that Mr. Crisler was buried in the blouse in which he fought for the flag and country.

The pall-bearers were Wm. Kinney, George Cowing, E. Mara, I. N. Fording, Ed Burlington and R. Saxton.
