Hall, William G.

Hall, William G. Birth Date: 1840 Birth Place: Indiana Death Date: 1/1/1919 Death Place: Carson City, Nv. Inscription: William Hall 1840-1919 (from 1956 transcription) Section: W 1 E

Source: place of birth and year from 1910 Census Records – Carson City.

Source: Other information from Obit :

Military Information: It is assumed, since he was buried in the GAR Section of the cemetery that he fought for the Union. I found several William G. Hall's that fought for the Union in the Civil War Soldiers and Sailors System and was unable to determine which would have been this soldier.

Census information on the 1870, 1900 and 1910 Census records Provide the following information on William G. Hall:

- He was married around 1873 to either Jennie or Janey (appears both ways on the census records) and they were still married as of 1910.
- He was a native of Indiana. Parents POB U.S.
- His occupation on all of the census records lists him as a Carpenter.

BURIED IN SOLDIERS' PLOT Carson City Daily Appeal 1/3/1919

The remains of the late William G. Hall, who died in this city New Years Day, were this afternoon laid away in the G. A. R. plot at Lone Mountain cemetery, many friends attending.

The pallbearers were George H. Meyers, Charles A. Brulin, A. W. Clark, Henry Wood, Robert Fulstone and Chauncey R. Dake.

The deceased was a member of the Grand Army and had participated In the Civil War.