Death of Dr. Guinan.
By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, March 24.—Dr. Guinan, a well known Carson, Nev., physician, died in this city last night after undergoing a severe operation for cancer of the stomach.

Funeral Arrangements

Morning Appeal, March 29, 1900

The funeral of the late Dr. Guinan will take place today from the family residence at 2 p.m. The services will be under the auspices of the Masons, of which body he was a member.

The Sad Last Rights

The Morning Appeal, March 30, 1900

Yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock the funeral of the late Dr. James Guinan took place from the family residence. The burial services were under the auspices of the Masonic order. Many friends crowded about the bier, not only from the little city in which he had made his home for many years, but friends came from the small towns and several from Reno and Virginia City. During the services, the Episcopal choir sang the beautiful hymns "Nearer My God to Thee", "Lead Kindly Light", and the burial chant. Floral pieces were beautiful and numerous, among them being a handsome piece of the Masonic emblem.

The procession to the grave was one of the largest ever seen in this city and the impressive services of the Masons were exceedingly touching. As each of the members dropped a twig of evergreen into the grave the many friends thought of the many good traits of the man that had passed to The Great Beyond.

The following Masons acted as pall bearers: Judge Stone, W. U. Mackey, E. D. Kelly, Dr. Prickard, Orvis Ring, Judge Mussey, George Gilson and Thomas Farrer.
