Death of Victor A. Muller

The Morning Appeal, Wednesday, March 21, 1883

Yesterday morning Victor A. Muller, of this city, died of consumption, passing away at 8:30. He was born in Alsace, France, and had he lived until to-day would have been 45 years old. He came to New York in 1853, and served as a volunteer in a New York company during the civil war. He came to this city in 1864, where his first wife died. His present wife is a sister to Jacob Klein. He leaves a grown up daughter by his first wife and a son by his second. Mr. Muller seemed in the prime of life two years ago, but was taken with fatal sickness and reduced from a hale man to a mere shadow. He was a man of the strictest integrity, and during his eighteen years residence in Carson made warm friends everywhere, and his widow has the tenderest sympathies of the community. The funeral will take place to-morrow from the Odd Fellows Hall.

The funeral of the late Victor Muller will take place from the Odd Fellows Hall to-morrow (Thursday) afternoon.
