

Heritage, George

Heritage, George
 Birth Date: 1849
 Birth Place: Ohio
 Death Date: January 27, 1898
 Death Place: Oakland, California
 Inscription: Geo Heritage Co. H 185 Ohio Inf. 1849-1899
 Section: 1C Row 6 Plot 34

Military Data:

185th Ohio Infantry, Co. H
 Rank In: Pvt
 Rank Out: Pvt
 Film Number: M552 Roll 47

Census Data:

1880 – Ormsby County
 Age: 32
 POB: Ohio
 Profession: Boiler Maker
 Parents POB: Ohio
 Wife: Sarah
 Children: Ruth (3), Henry (2), Amy (1)

Note wrong death year on Headstone!

George Heritage Killed

Morning Appeal, January 28, 1898

Henry Heritage received word last evening to the effect that his father George Heritage had been run over in the Oakland [Ca.] Yard by the cars and killed. The deceased was a well known citizen of Carson and connected to the railroad for many years.

George Heritage's Funeral

Morning Appeal, February 1, 1898

George Heritage was buried on Sunday under the auspices of the Grand Army assisted by Custer Post and Company F N. N. G.

It was a large and impressive funeral and the remains were escorted to the grave with military honors and beat of muffled drums. The following were the pallbearers: Frank Folsom, William Taylor, D. McDonald, George Wilcox, Phil Doyle and Harry Rice. Rev. Davis officiated.