

Thoroughman, John

(Old Ormsby Poor Farm Cemetery)

Thoroughman, John

Born: 1838

Location: Ohio

Died:

Location: rear of Fuji Park, Carson City

Inscription:

Grave location: Originally, this grave was located on the grounds Of the Ormsby Poor Farm in western Carson City. It is now at the back Of Fuji Park just off Hwy 395 in the outskirts of western Carson City.

Military Data:

Nativity: Ohio

Joined: 6/23/1863

Location: Dayton, Nevada

Mustered In: 9/9/1863

Location: Fort Churchill, Nevada

Mustered Out: 6/9/1866

Location: Fort Churchill, Nevada

Rank: Private

Battalion: 1st Nevada Volunteers

Arm of Service: Cavalry

Company: B

Source: Fort Churchill, Nevada Volunteers 1863-1866

THOROUGHMAN, John b. 1838 d. 12/09/1909

Born in Ohio; Enlisted in army in Dayton, Nev. on June 23, 1863 for a 3 year enlistment. He was inducted at Fort Churchill and Mustered out at Camp Douglas, Utah Territory on June 25, 1866. He entered the Ormsby County Poor Farm before Feb. 2, 1909.

Above information from

<ftp://ftp.rootsweb.com/pub/usgenweb/nv/ormsby-carson/poorfm.txt>

John Thoroughman is not buried at Lone Mountain Cemetery but on the outskirts of Carson City on the old Ormsby Poor Farm. I have included him with the rest of the Civil War Vets because he was a Nevada Civil War Veteran and is buried in an area at the back of what is now a public park, to the world, forgotten.