Agenda Date Requested: November 1, 2007

Time Requested: 20 minutes

Subject Title: Discussion and possible action on 90 day review, as ordered by the Liquor Board on July 19, 2007, of the liquor license issued to Bhupinder Lally, dba Winnie Liquor, and to give staff direction.

Staff Summary: On July 19, 2007, the Liquor Board suspended the liquor license of Mr. Lally for 15 days and ordered a 90 day review of the liquor license issued to Bhupinder Lally, dba Winnie Liquor. At the time, Mr. Lally had a contract for the sale of Winnie Liquor to Philip E. Haskin on October 4, 2007, the Board approved the granting of a liquor license to Mr. Haskin for Winnie Lane Grocery and Deli. At the Board meeting, it was represented to the Board that escrow would close for the sale of Winnie Liquor from Mr. Lally to Mr. Haskin on October 5, 2007. As escrow was scheduled to close for the sale of this business, the 90 day review of the liquor license issued to Mr. Lally was deemed to be a moot issue. Subsequently, it has come to the attention of staff that the escrow for the sale of the business has not yet closed. Therefore, the 90 review of the liquor license issued to Mr. Lally has been placed on the agenda. Staff will present a status report of compliance with regard to Winnie Liquor and request direction as to action regarding the liquor license on the November 15, 2007 Board meeting date.

Subject: Re: Lally's Liquor license status

Winnie Liquor has passed two compliance checks since the suspension of their liquor license. The first compliance check was on August 31, 2007 and the second was September 19, 2007. I have not heard any recent complaints about Winnie Liquor selling alcohol to minors.

Jarrold, at the next Liquor Board meeting, the Board will conduct the 90 day review of Lally's license, as ordered on July 19. This means the Nov. 1st Bd. of Supervisors meeting is the meeting where staff should brief the board as to the compliance status of Lally's liquor store. I don't know how he's done on his compliance checks since July but as an attachment to my Board report, could you get me a status report of compliance for the store. I'll need this information by Wednesday (10-24-07) by 9:00AM. Thanks! If you have any questions, call me. Walter
