

PROCLAMATION

Catholic Schools Week in Carson City January 29 – February 4, 2012

WHEREAS, Catholic Schools in Nevada are committed to providing a safe, structured, and caring learning environment dedicated to developing each student's God given potential; and

WHEREAS, Catholic Schools in Nevada share a vision to be national leaders in college preparatory education in an environment distinguished by Catholic values. While preparing students for higher education, a community is created where service, accountability, leadership, and excellence are celebrated; and

WHEREAS, Catholic Schools in Nevada assure excellence and high standards in all academics, offer a distinguished and wide variety of co-curricular activities, foster a safe, supportive, and disciplined learning environment, and endeavor to attract, retain, and develop outstanding faculty and staff; and

WHEREAS, Catholic Schools in Nevada nurture the gifts and talents of each child through a challenging academic curriculum, specialized enrichment programs as well as daily opportunities to grow in mind, body, and faith; and

WHEREAS, St. Teresa of Avila School was founded in Carson City in 1957 and this year celebrates its fifty-fifth anniversary; and

WHEREAS, St. Teresa School teachers are dedicated to providing quality education and their students consistently score higher than the national average in core testing areas; and

WHEREAS, St. Teresa School students are active volunteers in our community, dedicating countless hours each year to community service at our senior facilities, animal shelters, and food banks; and

WHEREAS, over its fifty-five year history in our community St. Teresa School has fostered academic excellence and leadership, producing many of our community leaders both past and present.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Robert L. Crowell, Mayor of Carson City, do hereby proudly proclaim January 29th through February 4, 2012 as Catholic Schools Week in Carson City.

Dated this 19th day of January 2012.

Robert L. Crowell, Mayor
