MEMORANDUM

Board of Supervisors Meeting of May 7, 2015

TO: Board of Supervisors

FROM: Susan Dorr Pansky, Planning Manager

DATE: April 28, 2015

SUBJECT: 2015 Carson City Historic Preservation Awards (HRC-14-156)

The Historic Preservation Commission (HRC) is pleased to announce that one residential property, one commercial property and three individuals have been selected as recipients of the 2015 Carson City Historic Preservation Award for Outstanding Achievement in Historic Preservation. The awards program provides the HRC and the Board of Supervisors an opportunity to recognize persons, organizations, objects and projects that have achieved distinction in the field of historic preservation during Historic Preservation and Archaeological Awareness Month.

This year's recipients exemplify the spirit, motivation and determination necessary to preserve our state's heritage for future generations. In honor of Historic Preservation and Archaeological Awareness Month, the following recipients have been selected for their outstanding historic preservation efforts in Carson City:

Maple Hill West Property
412 North Minnesota Street
Project Year: 2007 and 2012
Project Description: Exterior Improvements and Reroof

Gibbons Office Building
444 South Division Street
Project Year: 2009
Project: New 2,800 Square Foot Office Building

Individuals:

The Late Assemblyman Pete Livermore
The Late Lee Radtke
Myron Carpenter

For their outstanding contribution to the preservation efforts of the Nevada State Prison.
