This award recognizes our trail as "providing and/or enhancing opportunities for trail-based recreation and transportation within or near local communities."

Staff Summary: Muscle Powered was recently selected for a National award by the Coalition for Recreational Trails for its Ash to Kings Canyon trail in the Community Linkage category. This award recognizes our trail as "providing and/or enhancing opportunities for trail-based recreation and transportation within or near local communities." It was presented June 9th at a ceremony on Capitol Hill in Washington, DC which was attended by two Muscle Powered Board members, Anne Macquarie and Juan Guzman, as well as Dean Heller and a representative from Harry Reid's office. Given the wonderful collaboration with many local partners that the completion of this trail represents, Muscle Powered would like to share this award with Carson City and offer it for display at City Hall. Muscle Powered board members Kelly Clark, Chas and Anne Macquarie, Candace Chartraw, Randy Gaa, Jeff Potter, Amanda Garcia, Juan Guzman, and Debbie Lane.
