14. CITY MANAGER - DISCUSSION AND POSSIBLE ACTION REGARDING THE APPOINTMENT OF ONE MEMBER TO THE LIBRARY BOARD OF TRUSTEES TO FILL A FOUR-YEAR TERM THAT WILL EXPIRE JUNE 2023 (9:18:52) - Mayor Crowell introduced this item, and Ms. Paulson introduced Danielle Noblet. Mayor Crowell explained the interview process and Ms. Noblet responded to questions regarding her interest in serving; her opinion of the future of public libraries; the three most important qualities of a library director and how to evaluate those qualities; how to analyze allocation of resources between the recreational and professional services aspects of the library; a goal to achieve, as a Library Board of Trustees member, and the method by which to accomplish it; and how to employ her education and experience. Mayor Crowell offered Ms. Noblet the opportunity to comment and she expressed appreciation for the opportunity to interview. Mayor Crowell thanked Ms. Noblet for applying.

(9:33:18) Mayor Crowell welcomed Julie Balderson to the meeting table, and provided an overview of the interview process. Ms. Balderson responded to questions regarding her background and her interest in serving; her opinion of the role of public libraries in the future; the three most important qualities of a library director and how to evaluate those qualities; how to analyze and allocate available resources between the recreational and professional services aspects of the library; a goal to achieve, as a Library Board of Trustees member, and the method by which to accomplish it; and how to allocate resources between the library and the Adams Hub. Mayor Crowell offered Ms. Balderson the opportunity to comment further and she thanked the Board for the opportunity to interview. Mayor Crowell thanked Ms. Balderson for applying.

(9:46:38) Mayor Crowell welcomed Ananda Campbell, and provided an overview of the interview process. Ms. Campbell responded to questions regarding her background and her interest in serving; her vision for library services in the future; her Library Media Specialist Masters Endorsement; the three most important qualities of a library director and how to evaluate those qualities; how to analyze and allocate available resources between the recreational and professional services aspects of the library; a goal to achieve, as a Library Board of Trustees member, and the method by which to accomplish it; and how to allocate resources between the library and the Adams Hub. 15. LIBRARY - DISCUSSION AND POSSIBLE ACTION REGARDING A JOINT OPERATING AGREEMENT, BETWEEN THE CARSON CITY LIBRARY, CARSON CITY, NORTHERN NEVADA DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY (“NNDA”), AND ADAMS HUB, LLC, THROUGH WHICH THE LIBRARY WILL PAY NNDA $60,000 ANNUALLY FROM THE FUNDS PROVIDED TO THE LIBRARY FROM THE HOP AND MAE ADAMS FOUNDATION FOR THE CREATION AND OPERATION OF A BUSINESS RETENTION AND EXPANSION PROGRAM (10:34:57) - Mayor Crowell introduced this item, and Interim Library Director Diane Baker presented the agenda materials. In response to a question, Ms. Baker advised that the Library Board of Trustees are supportive of the agreement. Deputy District Attorney Todd Reese provided an overview of the proposed agreement. Supervisor Bonkowski advised of having reviewed the agreement and of no objections to NNDA handling the business retention and expansion program. Supervisor Bonkowski proposed having the two parties “deal directly with one another ... and then we could modify the original agreement, between the Foundation and the Library and the City, to reduce the donation amount from $200,000 to $140,000 which then frees up the $60,000 for the NNDA contract. I think that we’re just creating a more complicated, more expensive process to do something that could be handled in a more efficient way for less money.”

Supervisor Bonkowski invited Adams Hub, LLC Managing Member Steve Neighbors and Northern Nevada Development Authority President and CEO Rob Hooper to the meeting table. Both gentlemen expressed no objection to Supervisor Bonkowski’s proposal. In response to a question, Mr. Neighbors provided background information on his experience and an overview of the Adams Hub. Mr. Neighbors and Mr.

Hooper responded to questions of clarification, and extensive discussion followed. In response to a question, Ms. Baker advised that she would be returning to the Library Board of Trustees with the new proposal.

Mayor Crowell entertained additional questions or comments of the Board members and of the public and, when none were forthcoming, a motion. Supervisor Bonkowski moved to direct staff to bring back a revised and restructure agreement, between the Hop and Mae Adams Foundation and the Carson City Library. Supervisor Bagwell seconded the motion. Mayor Crowell entertained discussion on the motion. In response to a question, Supervisor Bonkowski expressed a preference for the “three parties to work out the details and then bring it back to us.” Mayor Crowell entertained additional discussion on the motion and, when none was forthcoming, advised that he would be voting against the motion. He expressed support for the original agreement, and provided an explanation for his opposition to the motion. Mayor Crowell called for a vote on the pending motion.
