Re: Liquor License Application – Liquor Manager
The Beer Studio
Duncan, Patrick Christopher

Amendment:

On January 27th Mr. Duncan came into the Sheriff's Office to go over the background summary that was completed for his liquor license. When reviewing the results with Mr. Duncan he explained the reasons that he did not list all of his arrests on his application. He advised that one conviction (2006) had been dismissed/expunged and he did not think he had to list it. Two others, from 2003, were not listed and he thought he was tried as a juvenile but was actually 18 years of age at the time. Mr. Duncan did provide the expungement documentation for the associated conviction however the conviction, from 2006, still shows on his criminal history per California law.

Mr. Duncan also disputed two other arrests that were being reported by another law enforcement agency. Mr. Duncan contacted that law enforcement agency and on January 28th that agency confirmed with me, with documentation, that Patrick Christopher Duncan was not the actual person associated with the two crimes. Those two arrests are no longer relevant.

I informed Mr. Duncan that I would submit an amendment regarding this information.
