Staff Contact: Heather Ferris, Planning Manager

Agenda Title: Presentation of a proclamation to recognize the month of May as Historic Preservation and Archaeological Awareness Month, and presentation of the 2022 Historic Preservation Award. (Heather Ferris, hferris@carson.org)

Staff Summary: Each year, Carson City recognizes significant preservation accomplishments to celebrate the community's history and heritage as part of Historic Preservation and Archaeological Awareness Month during the month of May. All over the state, activities are held to serve as reminders of the important historic resources that give meaning and a sense of place to communities, and to focus attention on how critical it is to make sure those resources are preserved. Mayor Bagwell and Mike Drews, Historic Resources Commission chairman, will present the 2022 Historic Preservation Award to the Nevada Builders Alliance for their preservation of the Bank Saloon.

Proclamation

“Historic Preservation and Archaeological Awareness Month”

May 2022

WHEREAS, historic preservation and archaeological awareness are affective tools for managing growth and sustainable development, revitalizing neighborhoods, fostering local pride and maintaining community center character while enhancing livability; and

WHEREAS, historic preservation and archaeological awareness are relevant for communities across the nation, both urban and rural, and for Americans of all ages, all walks of life and all ethnic backgrounds; and

WHEREAS, it is important to celebrate the role of history in our lives and the contributions made by dedicated individuals in helping to preserve the tangible aspects of the heritage that has shaped us as people;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Lori Bagwell, Mayor of Carson City, Nevada, do proclaim May 2022 as “Historic Preservation and Archaeological Awareness Month”, and call upon the people of Carson City to join their fellow citizens across the Nevada in recognizing and participating in this special observance.

Dated this 1st day of May 2022

Lori Bagwell, Mayor
